Serverless Bot Framework

aws

Serverless Bot Framework

Enables developers to quickly and easily build sophisticated conversational bots ("chatbots")

The Serverless Bot Framework is a solution that helps AWS customers implement chatbots in other languages without having to develop their own backend platforms that support language analysis and abstraction, and knowledge training. The solution integrates with managed services such as AWS Lambda, to apply machine learning algorithms, and Amazon Polly, to turn text into lifelike speech